

IN SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES.

JULY 27, 1842.

Ordered to be printed.—To accompany bill H. R. 263.

Mr. PHELPS submitted the following

REPORT :

The Committee on Pensions, to whom was referred the bill for the relief of Catharine Wilson, report :

Catharine Wilson claims a pension under the act of July 7, 1838, as the widow of James Wilson, a revolutionary soldier. Said Wilson was himself a pensioner under the act of March 18, 1818, and continued to receive his pension until his death, which took place on the 8th of August, 1839.

As the act of July 7, 1838, provides for those only who were widows at the time of its passage, it is obvious that Catharine Wilson, having become such at a later period, is not within its provisions, nor entitled to its benefits.

The committee recommend the indefinite postponement of the bill.

Thomas Allen, print.

IN SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

JAN 27 1843

Ordered to be printed—To accompany bill H. R. 383.

Mr. PARSONS submitted the following

REPORT:

The Committee on Pensions, to whom was referred the bill for the relief of Catherine Wilson, report:

Catherine Wilson claims a pension under the act of July 7, 1832, as the widow of James Wilson, a revolutionary soldier. Said Wilson was himself wounded under the act of March 18, 1813, and continued to receive his pension until his death, which took place on the 8th of August, 1830. The act of July 7, 1832, provides for those only who were widows at the time of its passage. It is obvious that Catherine Wilson, having become such at a later period, is not within its provisions, nor entitled to its benefit. The committee recommend the indefinite postponement of the bill.